Curriculum Vitae — Călin Georgescu

English translation of the supplied Romanian-language CV

Editorial note: This is a translation of a scanned, five-page CV supplied to FreeRomania.org. Statements, positions and dates below reproduce claims in the source document; they have not been independently verified. The document contains obscured personal information, which has not been reconstructed. “Present” reflects the wording of the source, not confirmation that a role continues in 2026.

Personal information

Călin Georgescu

Address, telephone, email, nationality, date of birth and sex: obscured in the supplied document.

Professional experience

September 2021 – present | Associate lecturer

Teaching courses: “Risk factors, environmental depollution and restoration” and “Integrated waste management”.

University of Pitești, Str. Târgul din Vale no. 1, Pitești, Argeș, Romania; https://www.upit.ro/

2016 – present | International consultant on environmental protection and sustainable development

Consultancy on international projects in infrastructure, renewable energy, environmental protection and sustainable development.

Independent consultant (the source also contains a separate “2013–2015 — Independent consultant” line, without further details).

2015–2016 | Executive Director; Special Adviser to the UN Director-General — Geneva

Organising and administering the activities of the International Institute for a new UN sustainability index; organising institutional structures and defining action plans; establishing and maintaining partnerships and attracting funding; participation in international sustainable-development meetings; advising the UN Director-General in Geneva on sustainable development and new viable economic models.

United Nations Global Sustainability Index Institute (UNGSII), United Nations Organization, Palais des Nations, CH-1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland; www.ungsii.org

2013–2015 | President

Institutional organisation and activity of the Centre; strategic planning and oversight of projects; building relationships with international partners; representing the Centre internationally and fundraising.

European Research Centre of the Club of Rome, Lagerhausstrasse 9, 8400 Winterthur, Switzerland.

2011–2013 | UN Special Rapporteur on the adverse effects of the movement of toxic and hazardous products and wastes on human rights

(a) Examining the effects of illicit transport of toxic and hazardous waste on the enjoyment of human rights, particularly life and health; (b) researching, monitoring, examining and receiving communications and information on illicit trafficking; (c) developing recommendations and proposing appropriate measures to control, reduce and eradicate illicit trafficking; (d) preparing annual reports for States and UN bodies on cases involving illicit transport and keeping records of people who died or were affected.

Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), Palais Wilson, 52 rue des Pâquis, CH-1201 Geneva, Switzerland; http://www.ohchr.org/

2000–2011 | Executive Director

Administering the National Centre for Sustainable Development: team coordination, day-to-day operations, designing and coordinating programmes and projects, monitoring project progress, attracting funding and maintaining relations with domestic and foreign stakeholders.

National Centre for Sustainable Development (CNDD), Str. Dr. Burghelea no. 16, Bucharest, sector 2, Romania; www.ncsd.ro

2006–2012 | Executive Director

Coordinating the “Reprofessionalisation of Romania” project.

Institute for Innovation and Development Projects (IPID), Str. Dr. Burghelea no. 16, Bucharest, sector 2, Romania; www.ncsd.ro

1996–1997; 1998–2008 | Project Manager

Coordinating the “Local Agenda 21” project for more than 40 local authorities in Romania; managing local sustainable-development plans, fundraising, achieving objectives and optimising activities; proposing and implementing measures to maintain and strengthen partnerships.

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Bd. Primăverii no. 48A, Bucharest, Romania; www.undp.org

2004–2005 | Director of the Directorate for International Economic Organisations

Coordinating activities of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Romania; maintaining and strengthening relations with international partners; coordinating the Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ economic policies.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MAE), Aleea Alexandru no. 31, Bucharest, Romania; www.mae.ro

1997–1998 | Secretary-General

Coordinating current ministry activities; drafting strategy and vision; maintaining relations with similar institutions and local and central administration; coordinating international projects.

Ministry of the Environment, Bd. Libertății no. 12, Bucharest, Romania; http://www.mmediu.ro

1993–1996 | President

Managing environmental protection activities and the team; maintaining and strengthening relations with partners (authorities, media, professionals, NGOs); fundraising.

Ecologist Youth Association of Romania (TER), NGO, Bucharest, Romania.

1992 | Adviser to the Minister

Assisting the minister in his activities.

Ministry of the Environment, Bd. Libertății no. 12, Bucharest, Romania; http://www.mmediu.ro

1991 | Head of the Senate Environment Office

Coordinating the office; maintaining relations with corresponding institutions and local and central administration; planning and preparing events.

Romanian Parliament, Calea 13 Septembrie no. 1–3, Bucharest, Romania.

1990–1991 | Engineer, Soil Erosion Department

Implementing and coordinating soil erosion prevention projects in various Romanian counties.

National Research and Development Institute for Land Reclamation – I.N.C.D.I.F. “ISPIF”, Șoseaua Olteniței no. 35–37, Bucharest, Romania.

1986–1990 | Engineer

Implementing and coordinating land improvement works in forestry, environmental protection, fish farming, drainage and soil erosion.

I.E.E.L.I.F. (predecessor to ISPIF), Făgăraș, Brașov, Romania.

Education and training

2007 | Certificate of completion

National and international security; geopolitics and geostrategy; security policies and strategies; theory of international relations.

National Defence College, National Defence University “Carol I”.

1999 | Doctorate in Pedology

Pedology, geology, geography, cadastre, etc.

“Nicolae Bălcescu” Agronomic Institute / University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Bucharest.

1993–1994 | Environmental Training Programme

Environmental policies, development strategies and management for national parks.

Scholarship granted by the Government of the United Kingdom.

1980–1986 | Master’s diploma in Land Reclamation (as described in the source)

Pedology, topography, irrigation, soil erosion control, etc.

“Nicolae Bălcescu” Agronomic Institute / University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Bucharest, Faculty of Land Reclamation and Environmental Engineering.

Languages

Native language: Romanian. Self-assessed European framework proficiency, consistently across listening, reading, spoken interaction, spoken production and writing: English C1; French B2; Spanish B2; German B2.

Personal skills and competencies

Social skills

Teamwork; interacting with people of all social backgrounds; punctuality; networking and lobbying.

Organisational skills

Initiating, organising and completing projects within set deadlines; multidisciplinary coordination; coordinating multi-team work; mediation.

Computer skills

Windows, Microsoft Office, Internet Explorer.

Other skills

Negotiation, fundraising, presentations and moderation of public debates, writing articles and studies.

Driving licence

Category B.

Additional information

Publications

- “Romania at the Crossroads”, Logos Publishing House, Bucharest, 2014; Christiana Publishing House, 2016.
- “For an Ideal Community”, Compania Publishing House, Bucharest, 2012.
- “Romania after the Crisis. Reprofessionalisation”, Cultura Compania Publishing House, Bucharest, 2010.

• “Post-Crisis Romania”, Institute for Innovation and Development Projects, Bucharest, 2010.

• “The Chance of Romania – its People. Reprofessionalisation of Romania II”, Institute for Innovation and Development Projects, Bucharest, 2009.

• “Romania’s National Sustainable Development Strategy”, 1999 and 2008 editions – project coordinator.

• “Local Agenda 21” sustainable-development plans for more than 40 Romanian localities, 2000–2008 – project coordinator.

• “Reprofessionalisation of Romania”, Institute for Innovation and Development Projects, Bucharest, 2008.

• “Romania 2020”, Congress Publishing House, Bucharest, 1998 – coordinator.

• “Protecting the Romanian Environment”, in “National Report 1994–1995”, Charity Know How “TERRA XXI”, Revista lunară de Mediu, Bucharest, 1995 – collaborator, Permanent Secretariat.

• Documentary film about the environment “Baia Mare – X-ray of a Hidden Cancer”, Bucharest, 1994.

• “Agriculture and the Environment in Central and Eastern Europe”, London, 1992, The Ecological Studies Institute, pp. 118–137.

Other positions held

• Director for Romania, National Committee for the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) in Romania, 1997.

• Secretary-General of the Romanian Association for the Club of Rome, Bucharest, 1997.

• Member of the “International Ranger Federation”, UK, 1993.

References

Michael Møller, Director-General, United Nations Office at Geneva; and Prof. Mag. Dr. phil. Michael Friedrich Vogt. Their contact details appear in the supplied source; they are omitted from this publication copy.